Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Musicians in the Making Concert 2019

I am writing to invite you to attend our popular concert, Musicians in the Making. This is a relaxed concert of solos and small ensembles, and has been an annual event for over 20 years here at South Dartmoor. The pieces performed are created by the students themselves, rather than through music clubs, and represents their personal music making and tastes.

The concert will take place in the College Hall, 7pm on Thursday 23rd May 2019. Tickets are priced £3 for adults, £1 for concessions, and students at South Dartmoor are still able to claim a free ticket. These can be purchased at the Finance Office in the main Reception Building, or on the door at the event.

I look forward to welcoming you to the concert and enjoying an evening of music making.

Yours faithfully,

Ralph Wickenden

Deputy Principal, Teacher of Music
