

MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Welcome to the Modern Foreign Languages Super Curriculum. Below you'll find a whole host of things to do to stretch yourself beyond the classroom curriculum.

Bonne Année, Feliz Año Nuevo and Happy New Year! As we head into the new year and the evenings get lighter again, now is a good time to reflect on your language learning journey. Here, you will find some ways you might incorporate languages into your new year's resolutions. The festive season continues for longer in France and Spain and they would be horrified to know we are back at school so early! Find out more about their celebrations on 6th January below.

READ

Read some top tips on how to stick to a language learning new year's resolution:

How To Set \(And Keep\) A Language-Learning New Year's Resolution - babbel.com

Read this one if you need some convincing!

Why Learning A Language Should Be Your #1 New Year's Resolution - blog.enlego.com

WATCH

Check out this video to see famous French chef, Raymond Blanc, whipping up a 'Galette des Rois':

Galette des Rois - Raymond Blanc's Christmas Feast - YouTube

Or watch the 'Reyes Magos' procession in Madrid:

Madrid three kings parade - Cabalgata de los Reyes Magos Madrid Spain - YouTube

LISTEN

Listen to super linguist Benny Lewis who spends his life travelling and learning languages:

How to Learn a Language Fast with Polyglot Benny Lewis - superhumanacademy.com

DO

Find out what you can about Epiphany (Fête des Rois in France and Día de los Reyes Magos in Spain):

Culture: La Fête des Rois \(The Festival of the Kings\) - BBC Bitesize

Día de Reyes - diainternacionalde.com

If you're at home, try this recipe for the traditional King's cake eaten in France: Galette des Rois (use grape juice rather than cognac!):

Galette des rois recipe - BBC Good Food

What happens if you get the piece with the fève or figurine?