

HISTORY and ANCIENT HISTORY

Welcome to the History and Ancient History Super Curriculum. Below you'll find a whole host of things to do to stretch yourself beyond the classroom curriculum.

READ

Explore using Seneca for learning about History; suitable for Year 7 - 9 and also great for our GCSE courses. A big list of topics can be found here:

Seneca: Learn 2x Faster - app.senecalearning.com

Seneca: GCSE History Revision - senecalearning.com

The first link takes you to Key Stage 3 History, and you can easily find the correct GCSE courses on the second link.

Our own library is an amazing resource. Check out the online library dashboard for the Middle Ages:

LISTEN

Listen to this BBC podcast on the upcoming US Presidential elections:

America looks set for Trump v Biden - BBC Sounds

A fabulous episode of You're Dead to Me, focused on one of the most powerful women in History:

You're Dead to Me: Eleanor of Aquitaine - BBC Radio 4

Here are some superb podcasts that help you understand both Elizabethan England (GCSE students) and the Cold War (Year 9 students):

The History Teacher - YouTube

WATCH

Take a look at this Netflix series which contains unbelievable footage and expert commentary on World War Two:

Greatest Events of WWII in Colour - Netflix

There is a terrific new documentary series on the role of Caesar in the collapse of the Late Roman Republic. Essential viewing for all GCSE Ancient History students and A Level Classical Civilisation students:

Julius Caesar: The Making of a Dictator - BBC Two

DO

Visit Bygones in Torquay, a fabulous local museum full of Victorian exhibits and a World War One trench re-creation, recommended by a Year 8 student who recently attended:
