

DRAMA

Welcome to the Drama Super Curriculum. Below you'll find a whole host of things to do to stretch yourself beyond the classroom curriculum.

Use the following resources to enhance your understanding of the creative approaches found in Drama. In Years 7, 8 and 9, this is also your optional home learning.

READ

Read a famous play:

The Complete Works of William Shakespeare - shakespeare.mit.edu

The Internet Classics Archive: Medea by Euripides - classics.mit.edu

Or any other...

WATCH

Explore the Royal Shakespeare Company's video collection:

RSC Videos: theatre at its best - rsc.org.uk

LISTEN

Listen and watch a famous actor talking about acting:

Sir Ian McKellen's acting process - YouTube

You can also find Sir Ian McKellen acting on many You Tube clips.

DO

- Read about the history of theatre.
- Attend and commit to a drama club or production.
- Learn lines and act for a performance.
- Volunteer to help with lighting or sound at a college event.
- Attend drama schools outside of college.
- Create a performance or practice diary.
- Create a log of acting performances you have seen either at theatres or on television/ cinema.
- Explore the plays of famous playwrights.
- Join a local amateur dramatic society.
- Audition for local theatre groups running at places such as Plymouth Theatre Royal; audition for National Youth Theatre