

DRAMA

Welcome to the Drama Super Curriculum. Below you'll find a whole host of things to do to stretch yourself beyond the classroom curriculum.

Use the following resources to enhance your understanding of the creative approaches found in Drama. We have included links to ClickView so you can start to explore this resource.

READ

Drama Literacy:

Destroying Drama: 'Big Picture' Questions in Drama
- clickview.net

WATCH

Explore the GCSE Set text:

An Inspector Calls Videos and Resources -
clickview.net

LISTEN

Listen to tips about script writing:

How to Write a Play - clickview.net

DO

- Write your own play.
- Read about the history of theatre.
- Attend and commit to a drama club or production.
- Learn lines and act for a performance.
- Volunteer to help with lighting or sound at a college event.
- Attend drama schools outside of college.
- Create a performance or practice diary.
- Create a log of acting performances you have seen either at theatres or on television/at the cinema.
- Explore the plays of famous playwrights.
- Join a local amateur dramatic society.
- Audition for local theatre groups running at places such as Plymouth Theatre Royal; audition for National Youth Theatre.