

MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Welcome to the Modern Foreign Languages Super Curriculum. Below you'll find a whole host of things to do to stretch yourself beyond the classroom curriculum.

Celebrate Francophone and Hispanic cultures this March through engaging activities that explore real festivals, film, music and traditions, helping you extend cultural understanding beyond your lessons.

READ

FRENCH: Explore what La Francophonie means and where French is spoken worldwide:

Francophonie in brief - francophonie.org

SPANISH: Find out everything about Las Fallas in Valencia (1–19 March):

Fallas of Valencia - visitvalencia.com

WATCH

FRENCH: What is La Francophonie?

What is "la Francophonie"? - YouTube

SPANISH: Watch this short documentary-style clip on Las Fallas and describe the ninots, parades and fireworks:

Fallas Night Up Close: The Fire, The Art, The Feeling \(Valencia\) - YouTube

LISTEN

FRENCH: Listen to On écrit sur les murs:

On écrit sur les murs - YouTube

Can you pick out 5 positive words, for example: espoir, amour, paix?

SPANISH: Listen to typical Fallas street-band music - pasodobles:

VALENCIA MUSICA Y FALLAS - Pasodobles and Música Fallera - YouTube

Can you identify 3 instruments you can hear, for example: trumpets, drums, clarinets?

DO

FRENCH: Create a mini poster for La Francophonie. Include five French-speaking countries and their flags, with one fact for each – for example: a date, a capital city or a food. Use the UNESCO page as your fact source:

International Francophonie Day - unesco.org

SPANISH: Make a colourful Las Fallas poster showing a ninot, flames and fireworks. Add five Spanish labels, for example: la mascletà, la cremà. Use this event guide for vocabulary:

Fallas of Valencia - visitvalencia.com