Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Booklet - Ways to help your child succeed at school

As a school, we are often asked by parents/carers about how they can best support their son/daughter's learning at school and home. The involvement of parents/carers in their son/daughter's education is so important, and as there are many excellent websites and books already available on this subject, we have collated the common key ideas and actions that are proven to work in most contexts.

We already have brilliantly supportive parents at South Dartmoor and we hope that this booklet supplements this by developing further the relationships between school, home and the student.

The full booklet is available at:

<http://www.southdartmoor.devon.sch.uk/page/?title=Whole+College&pid=77>

We will also be publishing the booklet in instalments over the next half term on social media.

Yours faithfully,
