

Welcome to the History and Ancient History Super Curriculum. Below you'll find a whole host of things to do to stretch yourself beyond the classroom curriculum.

READ

[Bayeux Tapestry unveiled to UK public for first time at British Museum - BBC News]

Read all about the historic Bayeux Tapestry exhibition at the British Museum

There are lots of articles here relating to Black History Month:

[Black History Month 2026 - Black History Month 2026]

WATCH

Remembrance Day is on 11th November. These clips will provide a useful intro and reminder about this important day [remembrance day bbc - Search]

https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/topics/c973zv64evqt

BBC Teach – a good reminder of the excellent History video clips aimed at secondary age group

LISTEN

This is the audiobook intro to Rubicon, the amazing book by Tom Holland that charts the collapse of the late Roman Republic, including Julius Caesar's famous invasion of his own country when he crosses the Rubicon. Whole audiobook available on Spotify or other usual streaming services:

[Rubicon: The Triumph and Tragedy of the Roman Republic (Extract) - The Rest Is History | Podcast on Spotify]

DO

Year 8 are about to begin their study of the transatlantic slave trade. The RAMM in Exeter has some resources, both online and in the museum itself, relating to Devon's role in the transatlantic slave trade:

[Transatlantic slave trade: Online Learning - RAMM (rammuseum.org.uk)]
[In Plain Sight: Transatlantic slavery and Devon opens January 2022 - RAMM (rammuseum.org.uk)]